Norwalk man accused of making 'lewd comment' to girl

By Sophie Vaughan Updated 5:37 pm EDT, Monday, April 15, 2019

Norwalk resident Yinri Tirado was charged with second degree breach of peace in Westport on April 12.

WESTPORT — A Norwalk man was arrested for an indecent comment directed toward an underage girl in Westport, police said.

Yinri Tirado, 25, was arrested on April 12 after a 16-year-old girl reported a man approached her and made a lewd comment while she was walking along the Saugatuck River.

The girl provided a description of the man, who was located a short distance away by officers and taken into custody, police said.

- Tirado was brought to headquarters and charged with second-degree breach of peace. He was released after posting $1,000 bond and is scheduled to appear at state Superior Court in Norwalk on April 23.
